Notice to Mariners

NAVIGATIONAL HAZARD Shallowing of the Murchison River Entrance to Kalbarri Mid West Region – Western Australia

Mariners are advised that, due to recent flooding; some areas of the Murchison River Mouth have shallowed making it difficult to navigate. Sand has built up in the navigable channel restricting access to vessels.

Chart Reference Department of Transport Chart WA976

Mariners are advised to proceed with extreme caution when transiting the Murchison River Mouth, to keep a safe speed and lookout at all times for broken waters from sand build up and the reduced depth.
