FAQs

STATE GOVERNMENT SUPPORT FOR REGIONAL REX FLIGHTS FOR ALBANY, ESPERANCE AND CARNARVON-MONKEY MIA

What is the funding going towards?

The State Government is providing $3 million in funding to secure Regional Express (Rex) services on the regional air routes of Albany, Esperance and Carnarvon-Monkey Mia.

When will these new schedules come into place?

The new schedules for RPT air services to Albany, Esperance and Carnarvon-Monkey Mia will come into effect in April 2020 for a period of 3 months, subject to a review and the possibility of extension.

For the flight times and schedules please visit www.rex.com.au

What about urgent medical emergencies?

If required to be flown to Perth in a medical emergency, the Royal Flying Doctor Service will still be providing emergency flights as normal.

Where can I find the new schedules?

The below agreed services levels will come into place from April 2020, for the full flight schedules please visit Rex's website www.rex.com.au

- Perth-Albany 4 return air services per week
- Perth-Esperance 4 return air services per week
- Perth-Carnarvon-Monkey Mia 2 return air services per week

Are there any restriction for passengers?

As of 1.30 pm Tuesday 24 March 2020, new border restrictions are in place to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Unless exempt, anyone who crosses the border into WA by air will be required to self-isolate for 14 days.

If you meet the criteria for Essential Traveller status you may be exempted from the 14-day quarantine requirement.

If you are planning on flying within WA, the public are asked to only travel if it is essential, in order to help prevent the spread of COVID-19.

Access is also restricted into the following regions:

- Kimberley (comprising all four local government areas);
- Shire of Ngaanyatjarraku;
- Parts of the Shire of East Pilbara that encompass the communities of Jigalong, Martu homeland communities and Kiwirrkurra.
