GENERAL INFORMATION

The seller must submit:

to any DVS or regional DVS Agent.

If the purchaser wishes to immediately place the optional plates on a W.A. licensed vehicle, they must also submit the vehicle licence papers and the existing plates.

*No requirement where the optional plates are attached to a licensed vehicle that has been sold. The seller and purchaser must also sign & submit an MR9 (Vehicle Licence Transfer) form along with this form within 14 days of the sale of the vehicle.

The holder of a 'Certificate of Right to Display and Trade' may offer that right for sale.

A sale can take place at any price to any individual or corporation by transferring the rights.

To sell your optional plates the owner of the 'Certificate of Right to Display and Trade' must complete this form. The form must be submitted within 14 days of the sale, together with the 'Certificate of Right to Display and Trade' and the plates to your nearest Driver and Vehicle Services Centre or regional Agent.

The purchaser of the 'Certificate of Right to Display and Trade' must submit the completed original copy and pay the required transfer fee at any Driver and Vehicle Services Centre or regional Agent.

Optional Series plates are not automatically transferred to a new owner as part of the transfer of a vehicle licence. The new owner must also apply to transfer the right to display the plates into their name by completing this Transfer of Right to Display Optional Plates form.

If the seller wants to retain ownership of the Optional Series Plates when the vehicle is sold, they must attend a Driver and Vehicle Services Centre or regional Agent with the Optional Plates and the current vehicle licence documents. The Optional Plates can be retained and changed for general issue State or District plates. The vehicle can then be sold with the general issue plates.

If you are the beneficiary of an Estate or Family Court Order, you will pay a reduced plate transfer fee (please refer to the current schedule of Plate fees). You must present a copy of the Will or the Court Order at a Driver and Vehicle Services Centre or regional Agent.

OUTSTANDING TRANSFER FEES FOR OPTIONAL SERIES PLATES

If you have outstanding plate transfer fees, you will be contacted by mail and advised of the requirement to pay those fees.

The Director General can also demand the return of the number plates if the plates are not transferred. A penalty will apply if the plates are not returned.
