Intestacy

“Intestacy” is where a person dies:

- without leaving a Will; or
- leaving a Will which, for some reason, does not deal with all their property (estate).

The Administration Act 1903 contains the legislative provisions for Probate, Administration and the duties on the estates of deceased persons in the above circumstances.

Boat Transfer Form

A Boat Transfer Form must be completed and accompany this Statutory Declaration - Deceased Estate: Intestate form before the transfer of registration can be completed.

Transfer to next of kin/de facto – intestate

The Boat Transfer form must be endorsed immediately underneath the new owners name with the words ‘Next of Kin’ or ‘De Facto Partner’.

Transfer to other than next of kin/de facto – intestate

If a vessel registration holder dies intestate (without a will) and the next of kin/de facto partner wants to sell the vessel, the person who acquires the vessel must present a Boat Transfer Form and this Statutory Declaration - Deceased Estate: Intestate form, both completed by the next of kin/de facto partner.

The next of kin/de facto partner must record the seller’s details as ‘Estate of (insert full name)’ on the Boat Transfer Form and endorse ‘Next of Kin’ or ‘De Facto Partner’ above their signature in the seller’s signature box.
